

Family Book Study Report

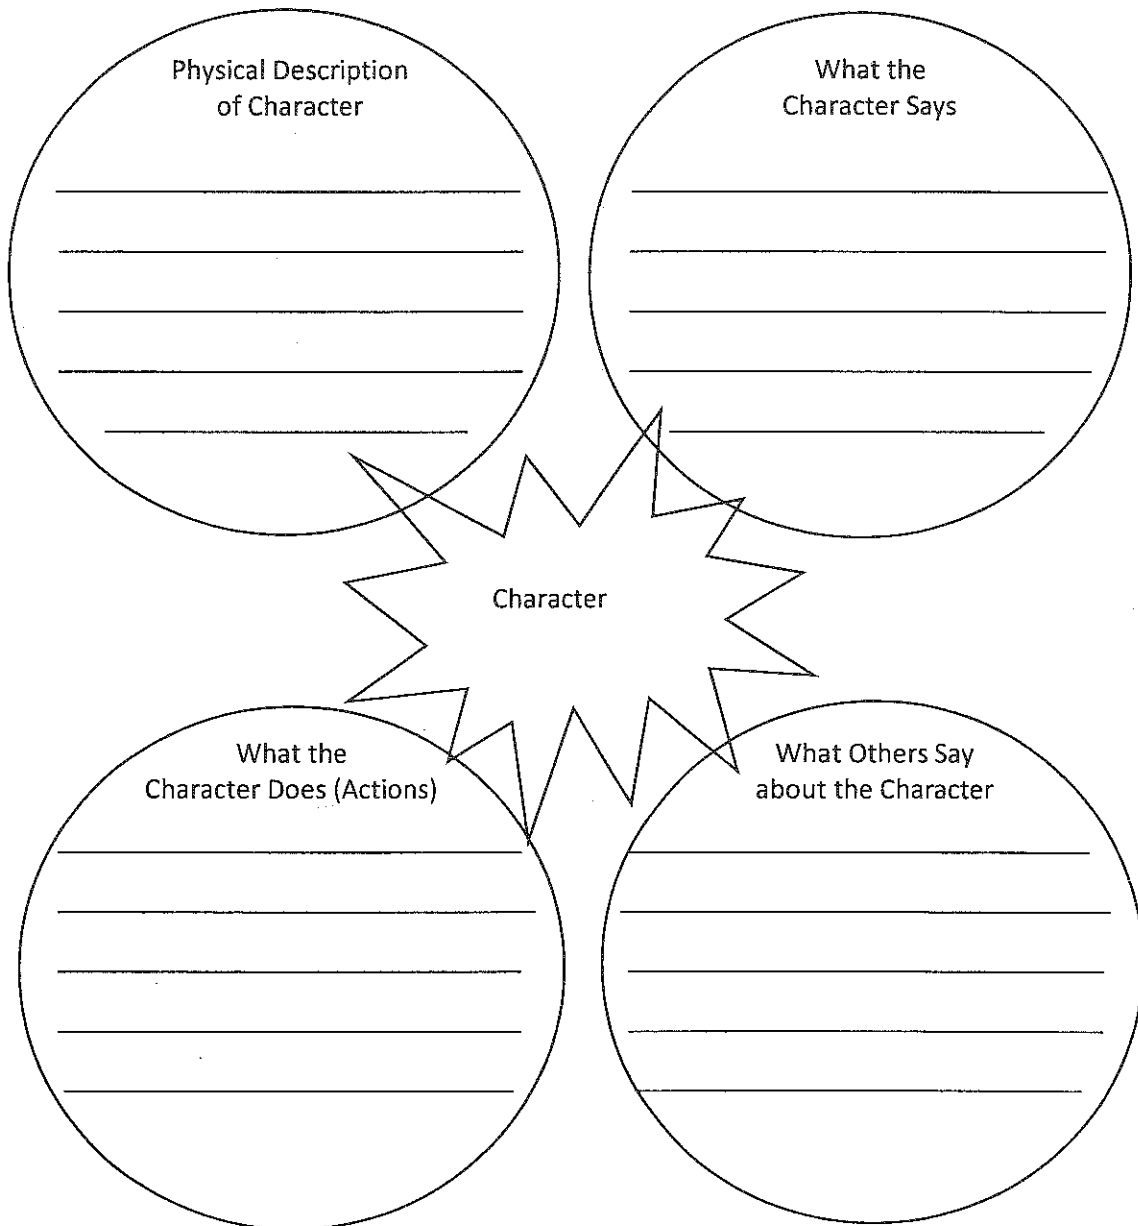

Quarter: 1 2 3 4

Book Title: _____

Book Author: _____

Participants in the Book Study: _____

There are four ways an author develops a character. Write your character's name in the center circle. Then give an example of each characterization method in the appropriate outer circles.

What were 5 new words you learned? Define them.

1. _____ - _____

2. _____ - _____

3. _____ - _____

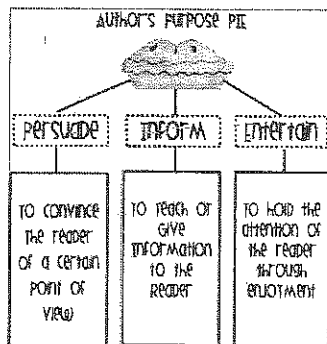

4. _____ - _____

5. _____ - _____

Describe the main setting of this story.

What would you have changed about this book (ex. Alter the ending, add another character, exclude a character, change the setting, etc.)? Why would you make this or these changes?

Author's Purpose is the reason why the author wrote the text. Do you think the author wrote your book to PERSUADE, INFORM, or ENTERTAIN you the reader? Explain why you think this using evidence from the text.

I think the author wrote my book to _____ the reader.

I think this because _____

Briefly summarize the story.

Beginning:

Middle:

End:

Would you recommend this book to someone you know? Who would you recommend it to? Why? If you wouldn't recommend it, explain your reasons why.

Compare and Contrast a character from this book to a character in another book you have read. You can use the space below to complete a Venn Diagram or a Double Bubble.